ADRIAN VELA	§

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A detention hearing has been held in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is probable cause to believe the defendant committed an offense involving a minor victim under 18 U.S.C. § 2251.

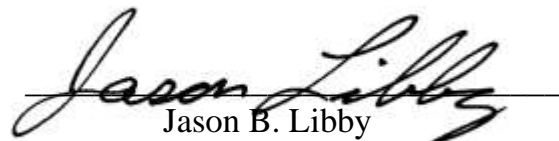

(2) The defendant is currently in state custody. He is before the Court on a writ of habeas corpus ad prosequendum. Additionally, the defendant has been ordered committed for a competency evaluation. He is currently not eligible for bond.

The defendant may move to re-open the detention hearing once the competency evaluation is completed, provided the state holds are resolved.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED on June 3, 2022.

Jason B. Libby
United States Magistrate Judge
